

North west end of Lockett home, taken in Spring ¹⁹¹⁵ by Mrs.
Burnham - Her
niece, and Mrs. Lockett at corner of house.
Shows children's study
My study, my room -
above

These are all lepers!
We are at the leper
camp near Fusan.
Oh, what it did mean for Hein to touch them! do you
see some of them
hiding their maimed
hands? The worst ones are in the back. Some of them will not look up, some cannot!
Don't it make you glad they have Hope in One!

Letitia Belle Sparr Lockett

(picture taken about 1890)

Missionary to Korea;

author of collection of letters in Seminary Library

Collection; Friend of Mother of Samuel Moffett in Korea

Grandmother of Rev. Chas. Lockett

